

I am not supportive of this de-regulation and see it as being very dangerous to democracy in this country. I thought monopolies were not legal in this country anymore. Haven't we learned what happens when corporation marries polotics? News is what helps people form their political viewpoints and if corporations have complete control over that news than we have a fascist state.